APPROVED BY:
General Meeting of Members of RREDA
Protocol No. 1-2026 dated
'11' February 2026
Effective date: 12 February 2026.

APPENDIX No. 1 "ON THE CATEGORIES OF MEMBERS OF THE ASSOCIATION AND THE PROCEDURE FOR DETERMINING THE AMOUNT AND METHOD OF PAYMENT OF MEMBERSHIP, TARGETED, ADDITIONAL PROPERTY AND OTHER CONTRIBUTIONS OF MEMBERS OF THE ASSOCIATION TO ITS PROPERTY"

TO THE REGULATION ON MEMBERS OF THE RUSSIA RENEWABLE ENERGY DEVELOPMENT ASSOCIATION

1. The following categories of members of the Association are established:

1.1. Category A:

- Large commercial organizations or related groups of organizations (including parent companies) interested in developing the sector of manufacturing equipment for renewable energy source (RES) generation facilities and generating electric power based on the use of RES, whose income received from business activities for the preceding calendar year and/or the amount of assets equals or exceeds RUB 2 billion;

- Non-commercial organizations (NCOs) interested in developing the sector of manufacturing equipment for RES generation facilities and generating electric power based on the use of RES.

1.2. Category B:

Medium-sized commercial organizations or related groups of organizations (including parent companies) engaged in activities, including in the field of generating electric power based on the use of RES and/or low-carbon hydrogen, whose income received from business activities for the preceding calendar year is from RUB 800 million to RUB 2 billion.

1.3. Category C:

Scientific and educational organizations and expert communities.

1.4. Category D:

Small and micro enterprises or related groups of organizations (including parent companies) engaged in activities, including in the field of generating electric power based on the use of RES and/or low-carbon hydrogen, whose income received from business activities for the preceding calendar year is less than RUB 800 million.

1.5. Category E:

Individuals, provided that they have knowledge in the field of sustainable development, renewable energy sources and energy saving, and experience in implementing Russian and international projects in the said areas.

2. The category of a member of the Association shall be determined by a decision of the Presidium, after the applicant has submitted an application for admission to the Association. For the purposes of determining the category of a member of the Association, when determining the amount of income and/or assets of a legal entity, indicators shall be taken into account, among other things, in respect of persons whose participatory interest in such legal entity or in one of its participants exceeds 25 percent.

3. The transfer of a member of the Association from one category to another shall be determined by a decision of the Presidium on the basis of an application from the member of the Association for transfer to another category, or on the initiative of the Association upon detection of a discrepancy with the criteria for classification to a category of member of the Association.

4. The following types of contributions of members of the Association are established as the principal means of forming the property of the Association:

4.1. Entrance fees – funds and/or property contributed by members of the Association at one time upon their admission to the Association;

4.2. Membership fees – funds contributed periodically (annually) by members of the Association to cover the Association's current expenses, determined in accordance with the budget of expenses for the current period and inflation;

4.3. Additional and targeted contributions – funds contributed by members of the Association to cover unforeseen expenses of the Association, determined in accordance with an additional decision of the General Meeting of Members of the Association.

5. The amounts of membership fees for 2026 are established according to Table 1:

Category of Association Member	Amount of Entrance Fee (RUB)	Amount of Annual Membership Fee (RUB)
Category A	540,000	4,147,200
Category B	108,000	1,036,800
Category C	54,000	207,360
Category D	108,000	276,480
Category E	21,600	41,472

Table 1

6. The amount of membership fees for the next calendar year shall be determined by a decision of the General Meeting of Members of the Association annually by September 30.

If a corresponding decision on changing the annual membership fees has not been taken by the General Meeting of Members of the Association, the amount of membership fees shall remain at the established values until a decision on changing the membership fees is taken.

7. Term for payment of contributions:

7.1. Entrance fees shall be paid by the applicant for membership in the Association by transferring funds to the settlement account of the Association within 10 (ten) business days after: submission of the application for admission to membership in the Association in the form set out in Appendix A; a positive decision of the Presidium regarding admission to membership in the Association, formalized by minutes; and the issuance of an invoice by the Association.

7.2. Membership fees shall be paid annually by the 20th (twentieth) day of the first month of the calendar year for which the current fee is being paid, on the basis of an invoice issued by the Association in the amount corresponding to the category of the member of the Association, by transferring funds to the settlement account of the Association. The date of payment of the membership fee shall be deemed to be the date the funds are debited from the settlement account of the member of the Association.

7.3. If admission to membership in the Association takes place after January 31 (thirty-first) of the current year, the membership fee shall be paid proportionally, based on the ratio of the amount of the annual membership fee to the number of full months remaining in the current calendar year, according to the formula (membership fee/12 x (12 – X)), where X is the number of the month in the calendar year in which the decision of the Presidium on membership was taken.

7.4. If admission to membership in the Association takes place after September 30 (thirtieth) of the current year, the membership fee for the following calendar year may simultaneously be paid.

7.5. Additional and targeted contributions determined by a decision of the General Meeting of Members shall be paid into the settlement account of the Association within 10 (ten) business days from the date such decision is taken and the invoice is sent to the members of the Association.

8. In the event of late payment by members of the Association of membership, entrance and other contributions for more than 30 (thirty) calendar days, the question of expelling the member of the Association from the Association shall be submitted to the Presidium for decision.

9. The obligation to pay entrance, membership, additional and targeted contributions may be performed for a member of the Association by a third party, in the manner provided for by the legislation of the Russian Federation. In this case, the member of the Association is obliged to send the Association a notice of the assignment of the said obligation to a third party. The third party, in turn, when making the payment, must indicate the name of the member of the Association for whom it is performing the obligation to pay membership fees.

10. The Association shall have the right to send members of the Association notices of the need to pay entrance, membership, additional and targeted contributions; however, failure to receive the said notice shall not be grounds for violating the procedure and time limits for payment of membership fees.
